Christ Church
Tracy City, Tennessee
1879

History

First services held in Tracy City were due to the effort of a Mr. Wesley, who in 1869 wrote Bp. Quintard requesting that a Missionary be sent them.

Dr. Knight was the first to hold service. I am told, and as there was no Church building of any kind, Services were held in the saw mill near the depot, where the Bishop preached many times. A building known as Temperance Hall was then erected & we were allowed to take our turn with Methodists & etc.

Services were held in this building by Bp. Quintard, Rev. W. P. DuBose & Rev. F. A. Sharp, followed by Messrs John Davis, John Kershan & Milnor Jones. Under Mr. Jones in 1873 the present Church was built chiefly through the efforts of three widowed sisters, Medames Nance, Randolph, & Garner. It was the first Church building put up in Tracy City. Until Sept. of 1891 the Mission was in charge of various theological students from Sewanee, no less than 22 taking their turn.

H. Easter succeeded W. T. Manning in Sept. 1891 and resigned Nov. 1st 1896 having presented 43 persons for confirmation & leaving 55 communicants on the list.
